Life History and reasons for sponsorship:

The above said girl Kunsang Wangmo was born at Chauntra (BIR), District Mandi India. This needy little girl is from a very poor Tibetan refugee family living now in Tibetan Refugee camp no 12 at Leh Ladakh. The family has three children and the father is the only who earns for the family by doing a cook in Tibetan Monastery at Dehradun. He could hardly meet the need of his family and it is far behind to give good education to his children. So with the help of the Tibetan Children's Village, his daughter Kunsang Wangmo got admission in TCV Family Home as a boarding student. Right now, she is reading in class II. She is frank by nature, likes to wear colorful fancy dress and loves to play with kitchen toys. Her favorite activity during her free time is to read English and Tibetan short story books of fairy tales. She wishes to become a Tibetan language Teacher after her further education.
